Buy Now.Â This was bought to compliment the Duolingo on-line Swedish course, which is very good but a bit short of concise guidance for those of us who like to understand a language's grammar by using a more traditional approach. I put in a fair amount of research before buying this book, because the familiar English publishers of dictionaries do not seem to produce Swedish grammars. I am very pleased with the result. Caveat: I say 'seems to be comprehensive' but I am still far from being fluent, so, I can't be sure, but I think it compares very well to other French and Latin guides
