

Dr. Maria (Basom) Alm
College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Dean, College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences, UW-Stout (2012-2014; 2015-present)

The College houses the School of Art and Design, five academic departments, approximately 140 faculty and academic staff members, nine undergraduate and two graduate programs serving 1,200 majors, with an annual operating budget of just under $7 million.

Responsibilities include monitoring and oversight of all college budgets, hiring within the college, evaluation of personnel, curriculum development, and program assessment. Major initiatives have included a $28 million restoration of a historic academic building; development of a School of Art and Design Advancement Board and case statement for a capital campaign; increased international professional development opportunities for faculty; increased study abroad and foreign language options for students (the addition of courses in Chinese, Russian, Arabic and Hmong); and grant writing.

Interim Director, Office of International Education, UW-Stout (2014-2015)

Led the English as a Second Language Institute, International Student Recruitment, International Student Services, Education Abroad and Education Away programs, and international partnerships. Began the process of accreditation of the ESL Institute; hired a Chinese specialist to focus curricular and recruitment efforts in China; wrote several successful grants; and developed new partnerships in Brazil and Kazakhstan. Responsible for risk and emergency management; immigration support; international visitors; strategic planning; assessment; alumni and external relations; and all budgets, including exchange, faculty-led study abroad programs, ESLI, scholarship funds, recruitment funds, international student fees and contingency accounts.

Director, UNI Institute of Humanities and Fine Arts in St. Petersburg (2001-2011)

Organized, advertised, recruited students and faculty, directed the program, and taught courses on Russian culture. This unique summer program combined intensive study of language and culture with individualized study in a student's area of specialization (art, music, theater, chemistry, communicative disorders, public health, etc.).

Head, Department of Modern Languages, University of Northern Iowa (1997-2004)

Led a large and diverse unit and was responsible for budgets (departmental, individual study abroad programs, foundation accounts, etc.); hiring (faculty, staff, graduate assistants, student assistants); faculty/staff development; evaluation (annual written review of faculty, staff, student assistants); student advising (undergraduate and graduate); student recruitment (with Admissions); curriculum (undergraduate and graduate); scheduling (courses, rooms);

registration; scholarship funds (increased scholarship funds, established Annual Awards Ceremony); development (on-going relationships with potential donors, alumni); outreach (Continuing Education; non-credit courses, conferences, workshops); administration of departmental study abroad programs (undergraduate and graduate); program promotion (speaker series, newsletters, websites, posters, fliers); technology development (distance education); facilities planning; graduate assistantships; teacher education liaison (coordinate with College of Education, reports to Iowa Department of Education).

Dean, Russian School, Middlebury College (1989-1990)

Responsible for all student affairs, including recruitment, curriculum, advising, scheduling, testing, integration of technology, housing, meals, etc.

Administrative experience. Anne-Wil Harzing - Sat 6 Feb 2016 16:10 (updated Sat 22 Jun 2019 10:46). My experience started during my MA studies at Maastricht University, where I was a student member of the governing body of the department of Business Administration. In my subsequent positions at the Universities of Heerlen, Tilburg and Maastricht, my administrative duties were mostly related to teaching development. Administrative Assistant with 6+ years of experience preparing flawless presentations, assembling facility reports, and maintaining the utmost confidentiality. Possesses a B.A. in History and expertise in Microsoft Excel. Looking to leverage my knowledge and experience into a role as Project Manager. PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE. REDFORD & SONS " Boston, MA. Administrative Assistant, September 2011 " Present. Administrative experience comes in a variety of forms but broadly relates to skills in communication, organization, research, scheduling and office support. One can gain administrative experience through employment in a variety of administrative support jobs. Many businesses employ administrative assistants to handle a variety of tasks, including answering the phone, dealing with correspondence and helping department supervisors.
