The cavalier poets was a school of English poets of the 17th century, that came from the classes that supported King Charles I during the English Civil War (1642–1651). Charles, a connoisseur of the fine arts, supported poets who created the art he craved. These poets in turn grouped themselves with the King and his service, thus becoming Cavalier Poets. A cavalier was traditionally a mounted soldier or knight, but when the term was applied to those who supported Charles, it was meant to portray them. The Cavalier Poets were named because they were members of the court of King Charles I. It's no wonder why the word Cavalier renders up pictures of a dashing romantic young man serenading his beautiful lady. I have chosen a small sample of my favorite cavalier poets and their works to grace my page and to bring the romance to it that I love! I've also decided to spice the poetry up with some favorite 17th century art works. You can click on the art if you decide you'd like to add a print to your collection!
