Fonds Description

W. Peter Ward fonds. – 1966-2012.

5 m of textual records and other materials.

Biographical Sketch

W. Peter Ward was born in Edmonton in 1943. He obtained a BA in English Literature from the University of Alberta in 1964 and an MA in History from the same university in 1966. He was awarded a PhD in History from Queen's University in Kingston in 1973. He taught high school for the Edmonton Public School Board in 1968-69 and held part time or sessional teaching appointments at the University of Alberta, the University of Saskatchewan, and Queen's University between 1967 and 1973.

Ward's research interests include: the history of the family in Canada, the history of immigration in Canada, the history of population health and the history of human physical growth. His major books are: White Canada Forever: Popular Attitudes and Public Policy Toward Orientals in British Columbia (1978, 1990, 2002), Courtship, Love and Marriage in 19th Century English Canada (1990), Birth Weight and Economic Growth: Women's Living Standards in the Industrializing West (1993), and A History of Domestic Space: Privacy and the Canadian Home (1999). He has published articles in leading national and international journals, including the Canadian Historical Review, the American Historical Review, the Journal of Interdisciplinary History, and Economics and Human Biology.

Peter Ward joined the UBC Department of History in 1973 as an Assistant Professor. He was granted tenure in 1978, promoted to Associate Professor in 1979, and was granted full professorial status in 1990. He went on to serve as Head of the UBC History Department (1991-1996) and later as Associate Dean for Strategic Initiatives in the Faculty of Arts (2002-2005). In addition he was a Visiting Professor at the University of Augsburg in 1995, as well as at the University of Bologna in 2009-10 and 2011-12.

In 2005 Ward joined the UBC Library as Deputy University Librarian. He served as University Librarian pro tem from 2007-2009. During this period he helped oversee the completion of the Irving K. Barber Learning Centre and, additionally, he launched a planning process that led to the establishment of UBC's institutional repository, cIRcle.

Ward has been the recipient of numerous research grants from the Social Sciences and Research Council of Canada and the Hannah Institute for the History of Medicine as well as from UBC. He has also received a number of distinctions for scholarship in his career, including leave fellowships from the Canada Council and Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council. In 1990 the Social Science Federation of Canada cited his book White Canada Forever as one of the 20 most important books in English supported by the Council over the previous 50 years. He also received a UBC Killam Fellowship in 1990-91 and a UBC Killam Research Prize in 1998. In 2012 he was ranked 2nd among Canada's historians in the first HiBAR survey (Hirsch-Index Benchmarking of Academic Research) that identified the most influential scholarly researchers in their respective fields.

Scope and Content

Fonds consists of personal and professional materials of Ward's related to his career. The fonds is divided into four series: Project series (1980-2004); Publications and Conferences (1966-2009); Teaching and Research Materials (1992-2003), and Correspondence series (1978-2001).

Notes

Includes: 20 DVDs, 1 CD, 1 floppy diskette, 162 photographs – prints and slides, 9 reels of microfilm.

Materials were acquired in several accruals since 2011, donated by W. Peter Ward. Copies of published book reviews were added by Dr. Ward in April 2013. Chinese head tax project and additional birth weight project materials, including the code book for the Utrecht birth weight database, were added in 2014 and 2015. Further accruals are expected.

Title based on the contents of the fonds.

Some reproductions of Ward's original research material are contained in the fonds. When this occurs at the sub-series level, the date of creation will be listed both for the copied research and his records resulting from that research.

The principle of provenance was adhered to in the creation of this finding aid. Peter Ward donated the records with an established intellectual order, and that order, where possible, was preserved.

RESTRICTIONS: Box 17 in the Teaching and Research Materials series contains materials labeled as personal or confidential and may be restricted.

File list available.

Series Descriptions

Projects. – 1976-2004.

3.18 m of textual material.

20 DVDs.

Predominantly, the series consists of records relating to the long-running Birth Weight Project. However, in all these projects, Ward sought to understand the history of human welfare and its social determinants.

Birth Weight Project. – 1976-1997.

2.21m.

Sub-series consists of records on the Birth Weight Project. Ward researched tax assessment rolls, ledgers, in-patient and out-patient records, etc. for the following cities: Boston, Dublin, Edinburgh, Vienna, and Montreal. Separate studies were also conducted on the cities, Utrecht and Bologna. Ward's research on the Birth/Newborn Weight Project was the foundation for the book, "Birth Weight and Economic Growth: Women's Living Standards in the Industrializing West."

The code book for the Utrecht birth weight database (file 7-5a) was added in December 2014.

NOTE: The Birth Weight Project records on Bologna are expected in a future accrual.

BOXES: 1-6, 22

Family Reconstitutions Project. – 1770-1920, 1989-1995.

56 cm.

Sub-series consists of records related to the Family Reconstitutions Project, including censuses, maps, tax assessment rolls, and research notes. The Project was a series of family reconstitution studies for the cities of Lunenburg, Nova Scotia and Perth, Ontario in the 18th and 19th century. Ward pursued a professional and personal interest in this project, but it did not reach the publication stage.

BOXES: 7(10-17), 8,9,10(1-6)

Infant Mortality Project. – ca.1995.

31 cm.

Sub-series consists of research notes and annotated German-Language articles on Infant Mortality between 1880 and 1940. The Infant Mortality Project looked at the changing medical understanding of infant mortality prior to WWI. Ward pursued a professional and personal interest in this project, but it did not reach the publication stage.

BOXES: 10(7-11), 11

Chinese Head Tax Project. – 2004-2010.

10 cm of textual records.

20 DVDs.

Sub-series consists of research notes and digital data assembled by Ward and Dr. Henry Yu for the Chinese Head Tax Project. This was a comprehensive project involving the digitization of more than 96,000 entries to the Chinese Head Tax Register.

BOXES: 23, 24

Publications and Conferences. – [1966-2012].

88 cm of textual material.

Series consists of drafts, finished copies, and publication details of Ward's articles and books. The series also contains conference papers, listings of attendees, maps of the cities visited, and programs from each event.

Copies of published book reviews were added by Dr. Ward in April 2013. File 23-7 was added in 2015.

BOXES: 12-16, 23

Teaching and Research Materials. – [1992-2003].

44 cm of textual material.

1 floppy diskette.

1 CD.

162 photographs – prints and slides.

9 reels of microfilm.

Series consists of syllabi, transparencies, handouts, and lecture notes relating to the courses Ward taught. Ward kept the correspondence relating to class participation, assignments, and research with other Teaching Materials. Thus, the correspondence is kept in this series, and not placed in the Correspondence series. Also included are photographs, both prints and slides, acquired from various sources and used as illustrative material.

Between 1982 and 2011, Ward taught H329 most frequently, in 1987, 1989, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, and 2002. Additionally, it is noteworthy that the series also contains records on the Honours students to which he advised and the applications submitted to the UBC HSS Grant and Hannah Institute.

A floppy diskette can be found in File 17-21. The diskette contains an Excel spreadsheet which tracks the economic history of an undefined city, and it contains a power point presentation which details the Canada's economic history.

The CD in Box 26 includes digital images used in Ward's book A History of Domestic Space: Privacy and the Canadian Home.

RESTRICTIONS: Box 17 in the Teaching Materials and Lecture Notes series contains materials labeled as confidential and may be restricted to protect the privacy of Ward's past students.

BOXES: 17-18, 25, 26

Correspondence. – [1978-2001].

50 cm of textual material.

Series consists of Ward's professional and personal correspondence. Predominantly, the series contains of incoming and outgoing letters pertaining to publications, students, and his areas of interest. In the accession there was a large aggregation of chronologically ordered Correspondence records. That chronological ordering was retained.

Fonds synonyms, Fonds pronunciation, Fonds translation, English dictionary definition of Fonds. adj. fond·er , fond·est 1. Having a strong liking, inclination, or affection: fond of ballet; fond of my nieces and nephews. 2. Affectionate; tender: a fond... Fond - definition of Fonds by The Free Dictionary. <https://www.thefreedictionary.com/Fonds>. Printer Friendly. Dictionary, Encyclopedia and Thesaurus - The Free Dictionary 11,943,764,947 visitors served. fonds. plural of fond. fonds (uncountable). the entire collection of the records originating from the same creator; an archive term used to describe a collection of papers that originate from the same source. fonds n or c. indefinite genitive singular of fond. fonds n (plural fondsen, diminutive fondsje n). fund (amount of money, usually on an account, destined for some purpose). (finance) stock (e.g. in an exchange). In archival science, a fonds is a group of documents that share the same origin and that have occurred naturally as an outgrowth of the daily workings of an agency, individual, or organization. An example of a fonds could be the writings of a poet that were never published or the records of an institution during a specific period. Fonds are a part of a hierarchical level of description system in an archive that begins with fonds at the top, and the subsequent levels become more descriptive and
