

LIBRARY NEWS OF NOTE FOR SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER, 2012

TO EVERY THING THERE IS A SEASON

Because I usually begin our portion of the newsletter with observations on the beauty of Hampton Falls and its changing seasons, I decided to enlist the opinions of my colleagues as we move from summer to fall. When I asked Joan what she likes best about summer, she said the sunshine, flowers, and watching the birds. Martha loves the longer hours of daylight and swimming in the ocean, while Carol revels in the smell of freshly cut grass, and only needing shorts and a tee rather than ten layers when she goes for a run. In the matter of heat and humidity our staff reached an impasse – Carol will sorely miss it, while Martha and Joan can't wait for fall's crisper air. However, everyone agreed that they will not miss the mosquitoes or the traffic on Route 1. Me? I'll miss bare feet, Silver Queen corn, and perfectly ripe tomatoes. Oh well, when life gives you apples, make apple pie!

SUMMER READING SUMMARY

77 registered adults and teens checked out 337 books from the start to finish of our Adult Summer Reading Program "Between the Covers" and 11 lucky participants won a fantastic assortment of gift certificates from our wonderful Hampton Falls business owners ... my deepest thanks to Coastal Living, Dodge's Agway, Drinkwater Flowers, Fiddlesticks, Hampton Falls Village Market, Philbrick's Fresh Market, Quicksilver Fine Jewelry, and You're Invited for providing such delightful incentives!

LIBRARY READING GARDEN IMPROVEMENTS

We're not quite certain of the exact day that Eagle Scout candidate Sam Hemond will begin his anticipated improvements of the Library Reading Garden, but you can be certain that they will provide a better place for reading, reflecting, and enjoying nature.

Stay tuned for an e-mail alert so you can follow his progress!

BOOK SALE AND CRAFT FAIR

We will be accepting donations of books, videos, dvds, and audio books through Saturday, September 8th in preparation for our Fall Book Sale on Saturday, September 15th from 9 to 1. We need volunteers to help sort and set up the tables on September 11-13th, so please let us know when you're available. We'll also have another Preview Day on Friday, September 14th from 11 to 4, when books and other items will sell for three times the usual bargain price but provide the greatest selection. If you're not able to make it either of those days, fear not. The sale will remain set up until Tuesday, September 25th and the prices will decrease accordingly. The other great thing about our Fall Book Sale is that it coincides with...

THE 3RD ANNUAL CRAFTS FAIR!

Crafters Lori Ward and Kristin Miranda have once again generously volunteered to chair the third annual Crafts Fair, to be held rain or shine in conjunction with our Fall Book Sale on Saturday, September 15th from 9 to 2. There will be space for 25 exhibitors at this juried fair and applications must be received by Sept. 1st. For more information and an application, please go to our web site, www.hamptonfallslibrary.org, where you can download all necessary forms. Extra forms are also available at the Library.

BARNES & NOBLE BOOKFAIR

I'm happy to report that our Library will partner with Barnes and Noble again with an in-store and online BookFair on Saturday, November 24th from noon until 4 p.m. Children's author Toni Buzzeo will be signing copies of her critically acclaimed book Lighthouse Christmas; Carol and Crew will delight youngsters of all ages plus, if all goes as planned, TJ Wheeler will be joining us again to entertain customers with his trademark rhythm and blues. It's a great way to do holiday shopping and support the Library.

BOOK GROUP FOR GROWNUPS

Our September 25th selection – The Cat's Table by Michael Ondaatje - allows readers to accompany eleven year old Michael onboard the Oronsay from Ceylon to London by way of the Suez Canal in 1950. As the Amazon reviewer notes “Michael's companions at the so-called cat's table, where the ship's unconnected strays dine together, become his friends and teachers, each leading him closer to the key that unlocks the Oronsay's mystery decades later.” Drawn on personal history, Ondaatje's beautiful writing, filled with humor and insight, made this a memorable read for yours truly. Traveling to Southeast Asia for our October 30th discussion, New Hampshire author Titia Bozuwa writes a true account of her husband's internment in The Emperor's Guest, coming of Age behind Barbed Wire during WWII in Indonesia. Gijs, the son of a Dutch navy officer stationed on Java, is seventeen when he enters prison camp. Separated from his family he faces hunger, beatings and serious illness. Amazon describes the book as “a spellbinding account of the transition from colonialists to captives in a country far from an equally war-torn motherland.” Our meetings start at 7 p.m. Copies of each title are available for interested readers; new members are always welcome.

PARTING THOUGHT

As we contemplate our political choices for the next 4 years, here is something to remember: “The three most important documents a free society gives are a birth certificate, a passport, and a library card.”
