CBS television tycoon Paley is portrayed as a narcissist, womanizer and tyrannical father in this well-documented biography, which is packed with TV and radio anecdotes and high-level intrigue. According to PW , this "often unflattering but never malicious portrait tears away the layers of self-aggrandizing mythology Paley wove about himself." Photos. Copyright 1991 Reed Business Information, Inc.Â Critics always claimed that former CBS Chairman William S. Paley's As it Happened (LJ 3/15/79) wasn't how it happened.Â With its mix of business reportage and gossip about a "brilliant circle" that included wife Babe, Truman Capote, Slim Keith, and David O. Selznick, this book should have wide appeal in public libraries. Previewed in Prepub Alert, LJ 7/90 as Paley: A Life.
