James Madison (1751-1836). The oldest of 10 children and a scion of the planter aristocracy, Madison was born in 1751 at Port Conway, King George County, VA, while his mother was visiting her parents. In a few weeks she journeyed back with her newborn son to Montpelier estate, in Orange County, which became his lifelong home. He received his early education from his mother, from tutors, and at a private school. An excellent scholar though frail and sickly in his youth, in 1771 he graduated from the College of New Jersey (later Princeton), where he demonstrated special interest in government and became a Fourth President of the United States (1809–1817), and one of that country's Founding Fathers. James Madison, Jr., President of the USA, was born 16 March 1751 in Port Conway, Virginia, United States to James Madison, Sr. (1723-1801) and Eleanor Rose (Nelly) Conway (1731-1829) and died 28 June 1836 in Montpelier, Virginia, United States of unspecified causes. He married Dolley Payne (1768-1849) 15 September 1794 in Harewood, Jefferson County, Virginia, United States. Notable ancestors include Henry II
