

Socially Strong
Emotionally Secure

Feeling Photos

~ for use with activities in the book titled ~

Socially Strong, Emotionally Secure: 50 Activities to Promote Resilient in Young Children,

by Nefertiti Bruce and Karen B. Cairone with the Devereux
Center for Resilient Children

To order this resource, go to www.gryphonhouse.com.

Excited Emily

Oh boy is Emily excited! Emily's birthday is coming up and she can't wait. All of her family and friends are coming over for her birthday party.

Feeling excited means feeling really happy - like you want to jump and shout with joy.

Nervous Naheema

Naheema feels nervous. A new visitor has come to her classroom to read a story to the class.

Feeling nervous means you feel unsure or worried about something.

Loved Lincoln and Leslie

Lincoln and Leslie are best friends. This friendship makes them feel loved.

Feeling loved means you feel like someone really cares about you.

Proud Pauline

Pauline feels proud. Pauline worked very hard to make this art project.

Feeling proud means you feel good about yourself or something you have done.

Surprised Sabrina

Sabrina feels surprised. Her grandmother has just brought her a brand new stuffed animal.

A person feels surprised when something happens that they didn't know was going to happen.

Tired Tiffany

Tiffany feels tired. She is ready to take a nap.

Feeling tired means you feel sleepy or like you don't have very much energy.

Happy Hanna

Hanna feels happy. It's a beautiful day outside and Hanna loves to play outside.

Feeling happy means you have feelings of great joy and pleasure.

Lonely Lionel

Lionel feels lonely. All of his friends are outside playing, but Lionel's mother said he could not go outside to play.

Feeling lonely means you feel alone or missing someone you love or care about.

Angry Adam

Adam feels angry. Adam wants to use red paint but there is only yellow paint left.

Feeling angry means to feel painfully hurt, upset or really mad.

Afraid Ariana

Ariana feels afraid. She wants to go down the sliding pole but has never done it before.

Feeling afraid means to feel scared, like something bad might happen.

The strategies and activities in Socially Strong, Emotionally Secure provide teachers with the tools they need to help children become socially and emotionally healthy for life. Organized into five chapters, the activities support and build resilience in children ages three to eight. Specifications. Socially Strong, Emotionally Secure and millions of other books are available for Amazon Kindle. Learn more. Enter your mobile number or email address below and we'll send you a link to download the free Kindle App.Â The strategies and activities in Socially Strong, Emotionally Secure provide teachers with the tools they need to help children become socially and emotionally healthy for life. Organized into five chapters, the activities support and build resilience in children ages three to eight. Read more. Socially Strong, Emotionally Secure has won the Teacher's Choice Awards. âœI enjoyed this book because it is a topic I face every day of school. The activities are so wonderful, my students enjoyed and actually ask to do them during the day.â€ Teacher. âœI set up a time every day for the activities to help my students develop their skills. Creating such skills made my heart soar. Thanks to your great resource!â€