Successful completion of American Sign Language I and II or equivalent

14. Co-Requisites

15. Brief Course Description

This course is seeking UC/CSU approval and district approval to meet the graduation requirement for A Language Other Than English. Students will develop intermediate to advanced level skills in signing and in comprehension of signs while deepening their familiarity with grammatical features of ASL. The course expands expressive and receptive vocabulary necessary to increase ASL proficiency. It will increase visual perception, visual memory, signed fluency and length of signed interactions to enable prolonged conversations with a Deaf person. The students will gain increased knowledge of Deaf culture including art and literature. Students will also become familiar with well-known Deaf individuals and historical events.

B. COURSE CONTENT

16. Course Purpose:

What is the purpose of this course? Please provide a brief description of the goals and expected outcomes. Note: More specificity than a simple recitation of the State Standards is needed.

The purpose of this course is to bring students to a higher level of language skills and offer a more in-depth look at Deaf culture and history. Students will become more fluent in receptive and expressive elements of the language. They will also be to dissect ASL sentences and gloss from English into ASL. Students will discuss, share, and present information regarding Deaf society and its intricacies. They will write short essays with recognized source to back up their research and theories.

Research format will be used for papers (MLA). Sociological views will be discussed as related to language, history, and culture.

17. Course Outline

Detailed description of topics covered. All historical knowledge is expected to be empirically based, give examples. Show examples of how the text is incorporated into the topics covered.

Grammar and vocabulary will be based on the information provided in the texts; historical events will be researched from the texts and outside research; cultural study will be conducted through the use of texts.
Topics: grammar, glossing, sentence structure, vocabulary, Deaf education, cultural similarities and difference, continuum of languages and sign systems, Gallaudet college, Deaf President Now, Deaf individuals, schools for the Deaf, Deaf students in various types of educational settings, ethics of interpreting, voice to sign and sign to voice interpreting, sociological viewpoints, communication devices, comparison of cultures, disability students.

18. Writing Assignments

C. HONORS COURSES ONLY

24. Indicate how this honors course is different from the standard course.

D. BACKGROUND INFORMATION

25. Context for Course (optional)

This course was written to offer an alternative to ASL IV Honors. The students’ effort will be weighed heavily and they will do more whole class and group work to make this a more basic class. More quizzes will be added and tests will be given less often.

26. History of Course Development (optional)

The department would like to offer both ASL IV and ASL IV Honors.
